Whisky Curse.

How many thousands of intelligent good hearted men are held slaves in the chains of alcobolism? Freed from the awful, pernictous habit, they would be noble, public spirited, family loving men, instead of the degraded, brutal wretches they are. But, alas, so long have they succumbed to the insattate desire for stimulant are, of their own free will, unable to shake off the irons that bind them. But don't despair; there is hope for you know; man need, no longer say he can not rid himself of the drink habit.

City Cousins and Summer Boarders.

In a sketch on "Peaceful Valley," picturing life in an ideal rural com munity, Mrs. Lyman Abbott, in the October Ladies Home Journal, preus spend a winter in Peaceful Valley as an experiment. The summer visitors will have gone. The 'city cousins, who find it very convenient to spend a few economical weeks with Cousin John on grandfather's old farm, to ride about in his plain, springless wagon, to enjoy the cream and fresh butter, and Cousin Jane's 'home cooking,' with the great advantage of having saved a good many dollars to be put into added luxury and festivities in town, will have departed. Gone, too, will be the 'city boarders,' who can find more fault in an hour than any other class of people, and who show great powers of endurance by staying

Some pourte west the h that Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey is ab better than other cough remedies until they try it. Then they will know for themselves that it is the best on earth. Up to date druggists sell it.

A Senseless Suicide.

There is a story of a Parisian woman who was a noted beauty and belle. She was happily married, enormously wealthy, envied and worshipped, but one day at the height of her triumph she committed suicide.

And the reason for her mad, incomprehensible act, as discovered from a note she left, was that she had found a wrinkle on her peerless face, a gray lock in her, soft hair, and so she preferred to die rather than to become old and ugly. Of course the senselessness and absurdity of her act completely forces aside any pity for the woman, but there is a pathos about it after all. Every woman has that feeling in a degree, but in her it was intensified .-Chicago News.

Klondike Housewiyes.

There are a few housewives in the Klondike region, and when they go marketing they cheerfully pay such prices as given below, pinching the gold dust from out a box or can. Bank notes and minted coin seldom pass over the counter of an Alaskan storekeeper. Virgin gold is the general tender, weighed often in scales as crude as those which measure out the commodity for which it is to be the equivalent. Butter, a rare delicacy, is $1 50 a pound; beef, 50 cents; bacon, 75 cents; rice, 25 cents; tea, $1; coffee, $1; ham, $1; lemons, 26 cents each; oranges, 50 cents; eggs, $1 50 a dozen; a better quality is quoted at $2 per dozen. -N. Y. Tribune.

Mrs. Smith Woolridge, of Kimble Ky., was so afflicted with her throat for over two years that she could not speak above a whisper. After she used the first bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey she could talk as well as ever, and the case is such a wonderful cure that her neighbors come in to see for themselves and are astonished to hear her talk. Sold by all druggists.

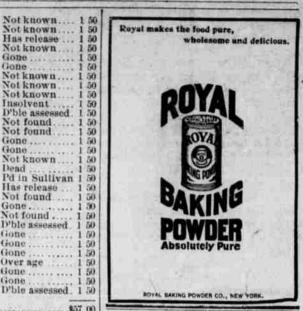

Same Thing.

Mrs. Peck-Henry, what does this war correspondent mean when he talks about the ceremony of signing the capitulations?

Mr. Peck-Oh, I suppose that's some outlandish suphemism for the groom's part in the marriage contract.-Judge.

Soldiers Taught to Crawl.

A French colonel is teaching his officers and mon to crawl on their stomachs, and has invented a leather glove to help the process. The regiment can now travel 100 yards in this manner without fatigue.-Chicago Times Herald.

Remarkable Bird Story.

A sparrow flew into one of the large rooms at the Burlington shops at Burington, Ia., the other day and getting too near one of the wheels, was sucked in. The workmen saw it and supposed that it was instantly killed, as the wheel was revolving at the rate of 180 revolution a minute. When the machinery was shut down at noon a gentle chirp was heard from the wheel, and when one of the workmen looked the sparrow was there, still alive. It had clung to the strengthening rod inside the wheel, and was so dazed it could not fly. It was picked up and placed on a table, where it recovered in a short time and flew away. The wheel made 31,000 revolutions while the bird was clinging to it, and the sparrow sents this realistic picture: " * * Let traveled more than 73 miles in that manner.-St. Louis Globe Democrat.

And as for this lawyer, this doctor, this journalist being called upon, for instance, to receive the Emperor of Russia in the name of France, that is what they absolutely can not away with .- Baron Pierre de Coubertin, in Century.

Fleas Cure Homestekness.

Mrs. Frisco, who has been visiting friends on the West side, up town, for several mouths, had been depressed nearly all the time. The other day when Mrs. Gotham called to take her California acquaintance for a ride in the park Mrs. Frisco was as chippier as "What; have the blues vanished?" asked her caller.

"Yes, indeed," replied Mrs. Frisco. You know how homesick I was for dear old California. Well, now I'm perfectly willing to have Harry settle here. New York is not so bad after all." "What brought about this change?"

inquired Mrs. Gotham.

"Well," said Mrs. Frisco, "just think of it. I caught three big fleas this morning. I nailed 'em just as we do at home. For a time I imagined myself back in California. New York seems just like home."-N. Y. Sun.
